This article will explore various common French questions, their meanings, and appropriate responses. By the end, you'll be equipped with practical phrases to use in everyday conversations.

Understanding the Structure of French Questions

Before diving into specific questions and answers, it's important to grasp how questions are formed in French. Generally, there are three primary structures for asking questions:

1. Intonation

This is the simplest way to ask a question. You simply raise your voice at the end of the sentence. For example:

- Statement: Tu aimes le chocolat. (You like chocolate.)
- Question: Tu aimes le chocolat? (Do you like chocolate?)

2. Inversion

Inversion involves swapping the subject and the verb. For example:

- Statement: Il va au marché. (He is going to the market.)
- Question: Va-t-il au marché? (Is he going to the market?)

3. Adding "est-ce que"

Using "est-ce que" at the beginning of a statement turns it into a question:

- Statement: Vous parlez français. (You speak French.)
- Question: Est-ce que vous parlez français? (Do you speak French?)
